COLLECT

Blessed Lord,
who caused all holy Scriptures to be written for
our learning:
help us so to hear them,
to read, mark, learn and inwardly digest them that, through patience, and the comfort of your holy word,
we may embrace and for ever hold fast
the hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

FIRST READING Leviticus 19

A reading from the book of Leviticus

The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:
Speak to all the congregation of the people of Israel and say to them: You shall be holy, for I the LORD your God am holy.
You shall not render an unjust judgement; you shall not be partial to the poor or defer to the great: with justice you shall judge your neighbour. You shall not go around as a slanderer among your people, and you shall not profit by the blood of your neighbour: I am the LORD.
You shall not hate in your heart anyone of your kin; you shall reprove your neighbour, or you will incur guilt yourself. You shall not take vengeance or bear a grudge against any of your people, but you shall love your neighbour as yourself: I am the LORD.
You shall keep my statutes. You shall not let your animals breed with a different kind; you shall not sow your field with two kinds of seed; nor shall you put on a garment made of two different materials.

GOSPEL Matthew 22: 34-end

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew

When the Pharisees heard that he had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, a lawyer, asked him a question to test him. 'Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?' He said to him, ' "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind." This is the greatest and first commandment. And a second is like it: "You shall love your neighbour as yourself." On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.'

Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them this question:
'What do you think of the Messiah? Whose son is he?' They said to him, 'The son of David.' He said to them, 'How is it then that David by the Spirit calls him Lord, saying, "The Lord said to my Lord, 'Sit at my right hand, until I put your enemies under your feet' "?
If David thus calls him Lord, how can he be his son?' No one was able to give him an answer, nor from that day did anyone dare to ask him
any more questions.

POST COMMUNION

God of all grace,
your Son Jesus Christ fed the hungry with the bread of his life and the word of his kingdom:
renew your people with your heavenly grace,
and in all our weakness sustain us by your true and living bread;
who is alive and reigns, now and for ever.

Sunday 29 October

Last Sunday after Trinity

Collect:

O ALMIGHTY and most merciful God, of thy bountiful goodness keep us, we beseech thee, from all things that may hurt us; that we, being ready both in body and soul, may cheerfully accomplish those things that thou wouldst have done; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Psalm 119: 89 – 104

89. O LORD, thy word:*
endureth for ever in heaven.
90. Thy truth also remaineth from one generation to another:*
thou hast laid the foundation of the earth, and it abideth.
91. They continue this day according to thine ordinance:*
for all things serve thee.
92. If my delight had not been in thy law:*
I should have perished in my trouble.
93. I will never forget thy commandments:*
for with them thou hast quickened me.
94. I am thine, O save me:*
for I have sought thy commandments.
95. The ungodly laid wait for me to destroy me:*
but I will consider thy testimonies.
96. I see that all things come to an end:*
but thy commandment is exceeding broad.
97. LORD, what love have I unto thy law:*
all the day long is my study in it.
98. Thou through thy commandments hast made me wiser than mine enemies:*
for they are ever with me.
99. I have more understanding than my teachers:*
for thy testimonies are my study.
100. I am wiser than the aged:*
because I keep thy commandments.
101. I have refrained my feet from every evil way:*
that I may keep thy word.
102. I have not shrunk from thy judgements:*
for thou teachest me.
103. O how sweet are thy words unto my throat:*
yea, sweeter than honey unto my mouth.
104. Through thy commandments I get understanding:*
therefore I hate all evil ways.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost;*
as it was in the beginning is now and ever shall be world without end. Amen
