How lovely are Thy dwellings fair, O Lord of Hosts. My soul ever longeth and fainteth sore for the blest courts of the Lord; my heart and my flesh do cry to the living God. O blest are they that in thy house are dwelling; they ever praise Thee, O Lord, for evermore.

At the end of the service there will be a short act of remembrance for those who gave their lives in the D Day campaigns in Normandy in 1944, 75 years ago this week.

NOTICES FOR THE WEEK

The Meditation Groups will meet this week on Monday at 19.30 and on Thursday at 14.00 in the Friends' Meeting House.

Urban Outreach has sent us a thank-you for the Easter Eggs we donated, and also an urgent request for cooking sauces, tinned fish, dried rice, cereals and nappies (size 4 and over) for the grub tub.

The Tuesday Lunchtime Concert Series continues this week with an organ recital given by Peter Morrison from Chorley. Tea and coffee are served from 12.45; the performance starts at 13.10 and lasts a little under an hour. The programme for the season is available at the back of church.

The PCC has been invited to visit the site of the new Bolton Parish Church Primary School on Friday at 13.30.

This Saturday morning at 11.00 Shaun Turnbull from Blackburn Cathedral will be giving an Organ Recital. Tickets £6 (£4 concessions). Tea and coffee will be served from 10.30.

Next Sunday at 19.30 there is a concert in church featuring Bolton Choral Union. The programme includes Duruflé's Requiem. Tickets cost £10 and will be available on the door. There will be no service of evening prayer.

Coming up this month: together with pupils from our Sunday School and Primary Schools, we will be marking the feast of St. Peter on Sunday June 23rd. This will also be our Gift Day 2019. You should receive a letter about Gift Day this morning – if not, please ask! This is a week earlier than usual because of Ian Hepburn's Ordination as Deacon on Sunday June 30th in the Cathedral.

The Tuesday Group meets at 14.00 this week in the Lower Hall – all welcome.
